VERA P.-T. A.

The Vera P.-T. A. held its December meeting on Thursday, December 18. The invocation was led by the Rev. W. C. Butler.

After singing Christmas Carols there was a brief business meeting.

A Christmas play of songs and recitations was presented by the primary grades, under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Covington.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria by the refreshment committee of the P.-T. A.

FOREIGN AID PROGRAM

A $4,100,000,000 foreign - aid program with increased emphasis on military assistance, is being prepared for Congress.

Administration officials said that President Eisenhower has decided to ask Congress for that sum for the year starting next July 1. About half would be for military aid and the rest for various forms of economic loans and grants.

GIVES UP

Santa Monica, Calif.- Mrs. Helen Austin, 70, says she's taken her last driving lesson because:

Recently she was driving with her driving instructor when the car jumped a curb and smashed into a crowded cafe. The car toppled the main roof beam and the stucco structure collapsed like a house of cards. Part of the building fell on another car parked outside. Twelve persons were injured. Damage was estimated at $30,000.

Police said Mrs. Austin's instructor was lucky. He was sitting in the back seat. The right front of the sedan was crushed.

Symington To Africa

Senator Stuart Symington is currently on a three-week tour of Africa and Israel.

The Missouri Democrat had planned the trip for months, but had postponed it several times.

A spokesman for Senator Symington said that he would make this four to "listen and not try to teach.' He believes, it was emphasized, that the future of the continent he will visit is important to the United States and all the West. He will look particularly into the economic and political conditions in some of the African countries.
